

May 14, 1908

DEATH OF FLORA RAPP

The community was startled last week by the report that Flora Rapp was lying at the point of death. Death came on Saturday last, and funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. S. Butt on Tuesday afternoon.

Deceased was eighteen years of age, grew up here, and until her last illness was always in vigorous health. Hence death came as a great shock to her family and friends.

Parties from a distance who came to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Schuler and Miss Ava Rapp of Mo-bridge, the latter a sister of deceased; George Rapp, a brother, and Lizzie Rapp an aunt, from Hettinger, N. D.; Misses Lizzie and Genie Rapp and Mrs. Stephenson of Aberdeen.